 - the alleged joint inspection report is false, and it can never be a title deed of the plaintiff.
 - The second defendant ordered the change of khata in favour of Mutt is false.
 - the properties stated in the schedule are lying within the territorial jurisdiction of courts at Bengaluru, Shimoga and Tumkur and this court has no jurisdiction to try the suit.
 - the suit is bad for non-joinder of necessary parties in possession of the respective properties and is not maintainable in law.
 - the suit is barred by law of limitation.
 - the suit properties are not properly valued, and the court fee is not sufficient.
- iii. The case of sixth defendant has been detailed in the judgement and stated that:
- The premises No. 55 is in the name of K. Hanumaiah in the registers of the corporation and the property does not belong to the plaintiff.
 - the relief prayed for by the plaintiff that this defendant should hand-over the schedule properties is untenable on the basis of which as the plaintiff has alleged nowhere that this defendant is in possession of any item of the suit schedule property.
 - there is no cause of action to the suit.
- iv. The following issues and findings of this case are as hereunder:

- Issue 1 - Whether plaintiff proves title to the suit schedule property?
- Finding 1 – Plaintiff has not proved that he has title to the suit schedule properties.
- Issue 2 - Whether plaintiff is entitled to possession of the suit properties?

- Issue 3 - Whether the suit has been properly valued?
- Finding 3 – The defendants have failed to prove that the suit has been properly valued.

- Issue 5 - Whether the suit is bad for non-joinder of parties?
- Finding 5 – The suit is bad for non-joinder of parties.
- Issue 6 - What relief?

Upon hearing the matter, the said petition was dismissed as the petitioner had not produced any evidence in support of his case even after providing sufficient opportunity (Note: There appears to be typo error regarding the mention of O.S. disposed on 17.02.1997 for the purpose of reviewing and passing the orders as prayed for?

- 2) Whether the review petitioner in 1/2006 has made out grounds to call for interference of the judgement passed by this tribunal in Appeal No. 118/1996 disposed on 17.02.1997 for the purpose of reviewing and passing the orders as prayed for?

- 3) And it is made clear that the stand of the respective parties before the various civil courts have not been taken into consideration in passing this order, which is purely on the locus standi of the petitioner to assail the order of the tribunal dated 17.02.1997 by filing a review petition as well as this writ petition.

- 2) Further, the Court has pronounced its Judgement dated 10.09.2015 as hereunder:

- From the documents produced before the court, it is clear that 5th Respondent has purchased the suit schedule property. Thereafter, a portion of the suit schedule property has been sold in favour of the 6th Respondent. The Appellants have failed to establish their case. The Trial Court on proper consideration of the material on record has rightly dismissed the suit. Therefore, the impugned judgement and decree does not call for interference.
- Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed.

87. Plaint dated 07.12.2009 and Judgement dated 02.08.2012 passed in Original Suit bearing No. 7810/2009 filed by Mr. K.V. Jayaprakash as 'Plaintiff' against (1) Dalith Sangharsh Samithi (Samyojaka) (2) Mr. H. Marappa (3) Mr. David (4) Mr. Nagaraja (5) Mr. K. Muniraju as 'Defendants' states as below:

1) The plaintiff had filed this suit praying for a judgement and decree against the defendants for the following reliefs:

- For a decree of permanent injunction restraining the defendants, their agents/servants or anybody claiming under or through them from interfering, dispossessing or taking forcible possession of the plaintiff in respect of the suit schedule property i.e., land bearing Survey Nos. 152/1A, 152/1B, 152/2A, 152/2B, 152/3A, 152/3B, 152/4A, 152/4B, 152/5A, 152/5B, 152/6A, 152/6B, 152/7A, 152/7B, 152/10A, 152/10B admeasuring 9 Acres 16 Guntas all contiguous and situated at Yelahanka Village, Yelahanka Hobli, Bangalore North Taluk and land bearing Survey No. 153 measuring 5 Acres 36 Guntas situated at Yelahanka Village, Yelahanka Hobli, Bangalore North Taluk in any manner whatsoever;

- For costs and such other reliefs as this Hon'ble Court deems fit to grant in the circumstances of the case, in the interest of justice and equity.

2) Further, the court based on the pleadings made out by both the parties and has framed the following issues and its findings:

Issues

- Issue 1: Whether the plaintiff proves that he was in lawful possession of the suit schedule property as on the date of the suit?
- Issue 2: Whether the plaintiff proves the alleged interference of the defendants?
- Issue 3: Whether the plaintiff is entitled for the relief of permanent injunction?
- Issue 4: What order or decree?

Findings

- For Issue Nos. 1, 2 & 3: In the Negative.
- For Issue No. 4: As per final order, the suit of the plaintiff is dismissed.

It has been observed from the order that the defendants have disputed the very title of the suit schedule property of the vendor of the plaintiff and the title & possession of the plaintiff over the said property, even then the plaintiff has continued the suit for bare permanent injunction. Therefore, the suit for bare permanent injunction is not a proper remedy to the plaintiff in the facts and circumstances of the present suit. Hence, the plaintiff who has approached the court, has utterly failed to prove his lawful possession over the suit schedule property as on the date of the suit. When the plaintiff has failed to prove his lawful possession over the suit schedule property, the question of interference by the defendants does not arise. Considering the dispute regarding the title and the various suits instituted before the civil court and matters pending before the revenue authority and pendency of Writ Petition before the Hon'ble High Court, it is not a fit case to grant the relief of permanent injunction as prayed for the plaintiff.

88. Appeal dated 23.08.2012 in RFA No. 1446/2012 filed by Mr. K.V. Jayaprakash as 'Appellant' against (1) Dalith Sangharsh Samithi (Samyojaka) (2) Mr. H. Marappa (3) Mr. David (4) Mr. Nagaraja (5) Mr. K. Muniraju as 'Respondents' before the High Court of Karnataka at Bangalore states as below:

- 2) The Parties have filed Joint Compromise Petition in this case on 03.10.2023 and the same is kept in abeyance and matter is posted for hearing.
- 3) The said RFA is pending for disposal. We advise that the said case be disposed.

89. Plaint dated 24.05.2022 filed in Original Suit bearing No. 3312/2022 by Sri Chandramouleshwara Shivacharya Swamigalu, Matadipathi of Sri Ramalingeshwara Mutt, Haranahalli, Shivamoga Taluk & District, Now Camp at No. 92/10, 12th C Main, 6th Block, Rajajinagar, Bengaluru – 560010 as 'Plaintiff' against (1) Mr. K.V. "The Defendant filed a Memo stating that Chandramouleshwara Shivacharya Swamigalu died on 28.09.2014 itself i.e., much earlier to filing of this suit.

In this regard in order to enquire about such submission made by the learned counsel for Defendant Nos. 1 and 2, notice was ordered against the counsel for Plaintiff.

The death certificate filed along with memo dated 15.06.2023 reveals about the death of Chandramouleshwara Shivacharya Swamigalu on 28.09.2014.

In this circumstance it is the duty of the Plaintiff to bring LRs of the deceased plaintiff or the Plaintiff has to withdraw the suit.

This suit being suit for permanent injunction, the same will survive if the LRs of the Plaintiff brought on record.

Here no such attempts were made and also no explanation is furnished with regard to the death of the Plaintiff.

Hence at this stage the suit is to be abated.

The Learned counsel for defendant has submitted that there was a fraud played in filing this suit. The Defendants are at liberty to initiate suitable action before proper forum of law.

The learned counsel impleading the proposed defendant pressed for hearing his IA U/O 1 Rule 10 of CPC.

As the suit is to be abated, the IA U/O 1 Rule 10 of CPC will not survive for consideration at this stage of the case.

Hence the Suit of the Plaintiff is abated."
