2. Discussion on Title:

- 2.1 On perusal of the above documents, it is observed that the Composite Land being portion of Survey No. 98, measuring 10 acres 29 guntas (excluding 15 guntas karab land) of Kumbalagodu Village, Kengeri Hobli, Bengaluru South Taluk, Bengaluru District was originally owned and possessed by Sri. Anthony, having acquired Said Property in the auction held by the Government vide Order dated 29-10-1941 and the same was recorded in the phody copy. We are not furnished with the auction sale deed and grant certificate to ascertain the grant of land and non-alienation period within which he was restricted from selling the Composite Property. The grant of land to Sri. R.J. Anthony could be evidenced from the extract of the phody copy and the survey records. The Composite Property was granted in the year 1941 (as evidenced in the Sale Deed & Hissa/Phody) and is sold in the year 1950 after period of 9 years from the date of grant and there are no proceedings initiated by the Government regarding violation of the terms of the grant. There being no claims ever since the date of sale in the year 1950, the purchaser and his successors-in-title have been in possession of the Composite Property for the last 73 years and their title to the same becomes impeccable.
- 2.2 That on 17-04-1950 Sri. R. J. Anthony sold 10 acres of the Survey No. 98 of Kumbalagodu Village in favour of Sri. G. Munishamappa, son of Sri. Giriappa. The said Sale Deed is registered vide Document No. 1707/ 1950-51 of Book I, Volume 1139, Pages 124 to 126 in the office of the Sub-Registrar, Bangalore Taluk and a copy of the same could be evidenced from Document No.1.
- 2.3 The portion of Survey No. 98 was granted to Sri. R.J. Anthony was surveyed and bifurcated and the same is assigned with new Survey No. 145, measuring 10 acres 29 guntas (excluding 15 guntas karab land) is the subject matter of this title report hereinafter referred to as "Composite Property".

- 2.4 By the Sale Deed dated 25-02-1988 Sri. G. Munishamappa alias G. Munishamaiah, son of Late Giriappa sold the Composite Property in favour of Sri. M. Ashwath Narayana, son of Sri. C.T. Malekallappa. The said Sale Deed is registered vide Document No. 10718/1987-88 of Book I, Volume 2763, Pages 106 to 111 in the office of the Sub-Registrar, Bengaluru South Taluk and a copy of the same could be evidenced from Document No. 2. The boundaries of the sale deed that are executed in favour of Sri. M. Ashwath Narayana mentions the full extent of land and there is no mention of the remaining portion retained by the earlier owner. Hence, it can be constructed that what was conveyed under the Sale Deed was the entire extent of land measuring 10 acres 29 guntas in Survey No. 145.
